Trees for Troops Fact Sheet

About Trees for Troops

Christmas tree growers have been providing free trees for military families for many years. In 2005, FedEx contacted the Christmas SPIRIT Foundation, the 501(c)(3) charitable branch of the National Christmas Tree Association and wanted to be involved in the foundation's mission. Together the two organizations expanded the idea of providing Christmas trees to military families, and Trees for Troops was born.

Since 2005, 243,955 free, farm-grown Christmas trees have been provided to troops and military families in the United States and overseas through Trees for Troops. Thousands of trees are donated by American farm families and the public, and FedEx delivers these trees to around 70 military bases in the U.S. and overseas. FedEx has logged more than 800,000 U.S. miles for the Trees for Troops program.

In 2020, we project around 14,500 trees will be provided and delivered to 79 bases in the U.S.

Honors and Recognitions

The Christmas SPIRIT Foundation was awarded the Best in America Seal of Excellence by the Independent Charities. The Seal of Excellence is awarded to charities that have been able to certify, document, and demonstrate on an annual basis that they meet the highest standards of public accountability, program effectiveness, and cost effectiveness. It is estimated that fewer than 5 percent of charities meet or exceed these standards, and, of those, fewer than 4 percent have been awarded this seal.

In 2012, Trees for Troops was honored at the White House as a top 20 national finalist in the Joining Forces Community Challenge, an initiative started by First Lady Michelle Obama and Dr. Jill Biden to recognize organizations that provide exemplary service and support to military families.

In 2009, CSF received a Halo Award from the Cause Marketing Forum for the implementation of the Trees for Troops program. This award recognizes outstanding cause marketing campaigns, which is an alliance between a non-profit and a corporate entity who join together for a cause.

By The Numbers

Since 2005, Trees for Troops has provided 243,955 Christmas trees to military families and troops in all branches of the military at bases in the U.S. and overseas.

In 2019, Trees for Troops delivered 18,600 farm-grown Christmas Trees. Trees were donated by roughly 450 Christmas tree growers, retailers, and their customers in 25 states. Donations were received through individual farms, the collective efforts of state and regional Christmas tree associations, and Trees for Troops weekend.

Hundreds of donors and volunteers participate each year to make Trees for Troops happen.

Trees for Troops Weekend

Trees for Troops Weekend is an annual event during which a group of Christmas tree farms, retail lots and nurseries sign up to host a trailer (provided by FedEx) to gather donations and allow customers to buy a tree to donate, write a special note on a tree tag, load it onto the trailer and those trees are added to the ones donated directly by tree farms.

Consumers can donate funds or Christmas trees by visiting one of the participating locations for 2020 and are encouraged to write personal messages on the tree tags that accompany donated trees. There are also opportunities to donate online for those not located near one of the official locations.
